Love's a Thin Diet

A college student, an older professor, a small private office, a bottle of wine, and unexpected games blur the line between seduction and consent...

Aphra publishes an article detrimental to her ex-husband Oliver and he confronts her about it. Did Oliver do something to help Aphra or did he take advantage of her, as she asserts in her article? The story of their relationship provides the backdrop for this play about sexual harassment and the dynamics of power, control, choice, and revenge.

FOUNDER & ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Allison Hohman

Allison is the creator of Rogue Theater Festival and a lover, not a fighter. She primarily works in stage management and lighting design in New York City, but finds herself producing, directing, acting, and whatever other artistic pursuits she can manage. She is an avid traveler and always looking for a good book to read. Check her out at allisonleahhohman.com

CREATOR NOTE

Rogue Theater Festival is proud to be in their fifth year of bringing new works to the stage and screen. With every year of Rogue, we hope to see more artists find their voice through opportunity and support. Rogue is committed to being a stepping stone on the journey of artistic discovery for people of all backgrounds and experiences. We are grateful to be working with Abingdon Theatre Company this year in the pursuit of brave new works. Learn more about Rogue at:
