ROGUE THEATER FESTIVAL

Godless

'Godless' is a one act play that delves into the origins of the human psyche between Adam and Eve, discusses the controversy surrounding humankind's perception of a higher power, and how each of us defines faith.

Written By:
Jarrett Winters
Morley

Jarrett Winters Morley (Playwright & Director) is a Metropolitan Theatre Award nominated actor, singer, composer, and lyricist. He is the creator of the original theatrical works Morningside and Godless. For Morningside, he wrote the book, music and lyrics, worked on the show as the music director and conductor, and it was the first student written Musical Theatre production produced by Manhattan School of Music in their 100 year history. In 2020, Mr. Morley played Bazzard in Manhattan School of Music's virtual production of The Mystery of Edwin Drood. Instilled by his parents, Mr. Morley is an active supporter of the arts in the educational system, and providing access to the arts in underprivileged communities.

FOUNDER & ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Allison Hohman

Allison is the creator of Rogue Theater Festival and a lover, not a fighter. She primarily works in stage management and lighting design in New York City, but finds herself producing, directing, acting, and whatever other artistic pursuits she can manage. She is an avid traveler and always looking for a good book to read. Check her out at allisonleahhohman.com

CREATOR NOTE

Rogue Theater Festival is proud to be in their third year of bringing new works to the stage. With every year of Rogue, we hope to see more artists find their voice through opportunity and support. Rogue is committed to being a stepping stone on the journey of artistic discovery for people of all backgrounds and experiences. We are grateful to have presented these forty-four new works in a socially distant and safe way. Learn more about Rogue at:
