THE THREE PRAYERS ANSWERED

BY LARRY RINKEL

The Three Prayers Answered

In the 2nd U.S. Civil War, two Rebel soldiers and friends named Palmer and R.C.

Are imprisoned in a Union tower
where they fall for the lovely Emily.

No longer friends but rivals, they are sentenced to fight until one loses his life.

And though R.C. wins, he is ambushed and dies, leaving Palmer to claim Emily as his wife.

Before turning to playwriting full-time, Larry Rinkel taught college English in New Jersey and later worked as a technical writer. A lifelong devotee of art, theatre, film, and classical music, he has had work produced across the United States. His full-length A Kreutzer Sonata was awarded Best Play at the Secret Theatre's 2017 UNFringed Festival, and received its Long Island premiere in December 2019. Other produced plays include adaptations from Chaucer and Dante, a farce about gender-blind casting in Shakespeare, another farce that takes place in a Chinese restaurant, several (mostly gay) romantic comedies, and a few 1-minute plays including a very cute one about Chopin's Minute Waltz. Capriccio Radio had its first public staged reading in January 2021, presented by the online Variations Theater Company. Larry is delighted to return for his third season with the Rogue Theater Festival. You can read his work on New Play Exchange: Larry Rinkel | New Play Exchange.
