The Interview

After a dangerous journey to a far-off colony, Mary - a free spirit - faces off with colony scientist Tomas in a high stakes entry interview. Will Mary pass Tomas tests and be allowed to enter? And will Tomas counter Mary's games of cat and mouse?

THE INTERVIEW

BY

JAYLAN S.
TURKKAN

Written and Directed By:
Jaylan Turkan

Jaylan Sheila Turkan is a playwright active in New York City. Through frequent use of alternate reality and fantastical settings, her plays call out fascism and conformism in society – when she’s not writing comedies. Her staged plays include
Comic
Con, Terra Firma (Chelsea Repertory Co.), Cast Her Out (The Complete Theatre Co.), The Interview (Rogue Theater Festival) and Forbidden Fruit (staged reading, The Living Room Theater Co.) The Shoestring Radio Company of San Francisco aired her radio play Weird Goes the Dinner. Jaylan is a member of the Dramatists Guild and a Board member of Two Good Dogs Theater Co.

FOUNDER & ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Allison Hohman

Allison is the creator of Rogue Theater Festival and a lover, not a fighter. She primarily works in stage management and lighting design in New York City, but finds herself producing, directing, acting, and whatever other artistic pursuits she can manage. She is an avid traveler and always looking for a good book to read. Check her out at allisonleahhohman.com

CREATOR NOTE

Rogue Theater Festival is proud to be in their third year of bringing new works to the stage. With every year of Rogue, we hope to see more artists find their voice through opportunity and support. Rogue is committed to being a stepping stone on the journey of artistic discovery for people of all backgrounds and experiences. We are grateful to have presented these forty-four new works in a socially distant and safe way. Learn more about Rogue at:
