the process:
a one woman show

The Process

In a journey for a fresh start, a young woman details her experiences with an ex-relationship that has left her with doubts of her own recollection, insecurities, and a burning sensation to tell it to him. Through the eyes of Ariana, audiences can see and feel the raw energy and emotion coming from our main character. Laughter, tears, nostalgia and a tickling feeling that things were worse than they seemed, The Process journeys into the complexities of an individual during the 2020 pandemic.

Written By: Elisabetta Bracer

Elisabetta is a recent graduate from Montclair State University, where she spent four years studying English Literature and Theatre Studies (a double major)! While starting her theatrical journey as a performer, she has slowly transformed her craft in the literary sides of theatre. She's the current Dramaturg in Residence with the new Meraki Entertainment and has also dramaturg-d for Don't Tell Amy Productions in their Draft One Festival and selected pieces for Acting Under the Influence. Elisabetta has had a hand at all angles of theatre-performer, wardrobe crew, dramaturg, stage manager, production manager, directing- but nothing hits deep in her spirit like playwriting and dramaturgy. The Process with Gianna Isabella was her first one act play, which premiered on her campus in February of 2022 and has participated in the Lime Arts Twenty by Twenty Fringe Festival! Elisabetta has never been more excited to continue her craft with the Rogue Theatre Festival and hopefully make an impact on artists and audiences alike.

FOUNDER & ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Allison Hohman

Allison is the creator of Rogue Theater Festival and a lover, not a fighter. She primarily works in stage management and lighting design in New York City, but finds herself producing, directing, acting, and whatever other artistic pursuits she can manage. She is an avid traveler and always looking for a good book to read. Check her out at allisonleahhohman.com
