Wine from the Tuscan Countryside

Lush piano harmonies and exact rhymes abound in this short musical set in Renaissance-era Italy. The premise is simple enough: one midnight, a rakish thief returns to Florence, the city from which he escaped the law, to steal away with his beloved. He visits her bedroom and passionately declares that they will live together in the bucolic and peaceful Tuscan countryside. However, nothing goes according to his romanticized plan; the situation quickly unravels as the drama intensifies and the story careens towards its surprising, yet inevitable end.

FOUNDER & ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Allison Hohman

Allison is the creator of Rogue Theater Festival and a lover, not a fighter. She primarily works in stage management and lighting design in New York City, but finds herself producing, directing, acting, and whatever other artistic pursuits she can manage. She is an avid traveler and always looking for a good book to read. Check her out at allisonleahhohman.com

CREATOR NOTE

Rogue Theater Festival is proud to be in their fourth year of bringing new works to the stage. With every year of Rogue, we hope to see more artists find their voice through opportunity and support. Rogue is committed to being a stepping stone on the journey of artistic discovery for people of all backgrounds and experiences. We are grateful to have presented these forty-four new works in a socially distant and safe way. Learn more about Rogue at:
