UNDEER THE FLOORBOARDS

By Dana Hall

A VIRTUAL ADAPTATION OF
EDGAR ALLEN POE'S
THE TELL-TALE HEART

Anna Gant

Under the Floorboards

Under the Floorboards is a virtual adaptation of Edgar Allen Poe's A Tell-Tale heart but our version has a bit of a twist. The narrator is a woman and she tells the story of how she encountered 'the man' from the perspective of three parts of her internal self-id, ego, and superego. Traditional pieces of hearing the heartbeat and heightened language are present but an emphasis on the man's eye. The eye serves as a symbol of patriarchal control and motivates the piece. Under the Floorboards is a metaphorical outcry to stop oppression and the institutions that perpetuate it. The technical director is Pamela Morgan, the piece stars: Luna Bianca Del Rio, Carson Earnest, Anna Gant and is written by Dana Hall.

FOUNDER & ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Allison Hohman

Allison is the creator of Rogue Theater Festival and a lover, not a fighter. She primarily works in stage management and lighting design in New York City, but finds herself producing, directing, acting, and whatever other artistic pursuits she can manage. She is an avid traveler and always looking for a good book to read. Check her out at allisonleahhohman.com

CREATOR NOTE

Rogue Theater Festival is proud to be in their fourth year of bringing new works to the stage. With every year of Rogue, we hope to see more artists find their voice through opportunity and support. Rogue is committed to being a stepping stone on the journey of artistic discovery for people of all backgrounds and experiences. We are grateful to have presented these forty-four new works in a socially distant and safe way. Learn more about Rogue at:
